The rhubarb is fine this year.

Coming soon—"Triangle Plays."

Sunday was an ideal Easter day.

Ice man will soon be getting busy.

Phew! But the Fords are running about!

Time to get ready for oiling the streets.

We had 1.30 inches of rain last Thursday and Thursday night.

Cole Brothers' Circus at Flat River May 2d. Shows at Poplar Bluff May 1st.

Witnesses from the "west end" before the grand jury are expensive to the county.

Eat your supper at the Academy of Music Thursday evening and help a worthy cause.

A. F. & A. M. members will procure their supper tickets at Madigan's hardware store. Free.

Sheriff Blue will make 140 sales of delinquent tax lands during the present term of circuit court.

Isaac Sutton, an old resident, is quite sick at his home in Pilot Knob, having recently suffered a paralytic stroke.

Our lights went to the bad last Thursday night about 8:30 and we were in darkness for a couple of hours. Mighty annoying.

Mr. A. Hale's Percheron "Chief" is said to be one of the finest draft horses ever seen in this section. He is stationed at Bellevue.

Bismarck folk are saying that a union depot for the joint use of the Iron Mountain and Missouri Southern may be built in that town soon.

Strayed—A Bay Mare, with yearling colt; white spot in face of both. Reward. Phone 98, Arcadia, Mo.

A. M. PLANT.

Chas. Edmond and Fremont Boss went to Middlebrook Saturday. They went after some parties that were stealing timber on some land owned by Mr. Boss' mother.—Bismarck Gazette.

Married—At the Courthouse, April 25th, 1916, Richard T. Bonney of Leesterville, Mo., and Lizzie Farmer of Annapolis. Judge O. W. Roop officiating.

It is said that the price of oil, used on the streets, has gone sky high. We hope it has not gone to such a price that we can not afford to buy some for Main street. Already the dust is a nuisance.

Edward Bethel will open a meat market in what is known as the Roehry building, east of the court house square. He expects to be ready for business next Saturday and solicits a share of the public patronage.

Edgar Douglas, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Fletcher of Arcadia was a caller at this office Sunday morning. He is an unusually bright little fellow and astonished us very much by evidencing that he knew his alphabet.

C. L. Stevenson left Tuesday for Des Arc, to look after things on the farm, and we are inclined to believe there is something else with a magnetic attraction as "Uncle Charlie" is making rather frequent visits to the farm here of late.—Libbourn Herald.

Rev. F. R. Wedge has resigned pastoral charge of the Piedmont Presbyterian church to accept the pulpit of the First Baptist church of Rhineland, Wisconsin, his boyhood home. He joined the Baptist church in Piedmont Sunday night.—Piedmont Banner.

Wm. Bainbridge went to St. Louis Sunday to attend the funeral of his late brother-in-law, Major David Murphy, who died in San Diego, California, about two weeks ago. Major Murphy was a veteran of the battle of Pilot Knob and used to make frequent visits to the valley.

The government is advertising for contracts to carry the mail six days in a week from Ironton to the Silver Mines and return. The mail is now carried three days in the week but the activity in the mines out there demands better mail facilities. Bids will be received until May 16th.

Recorder Hawkins issued the following marriage licenses the past week: Jno. J. Meadly and Catherine McGinnis of St. Louis.

Chas. Stamey of Des Arc and Mollie Poston of Brunot.

Richard T. Bonney of Leesterville and Lizzie Farmer of Annapolis.

Mr. W. R. Edgar, Sr., was in St. Louis last week consulting the specialist who has been treating him the past two months. After a thorough examination the physician pronounced Mr. Edgar's condition much improved and told him that with no further complications in the course of a couple of weeks he would be entirely well.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Dameron, of Newport, Arkansas, are spending the week in Ironton, the guests of Mrs. M. J. Francis. Mr. Dameron says that Newport is a great business town and has the most hospitable and sociable people in the world, but for all that they do not infrequently sigh for the rocks and hills of Arcadia valley.

Attorney Brewster of Poplar Bluff has been here the past week working on his place in west Ironton. He expected his mother from Hillsboro to meet him here, but on arrival in Ironton received a note from his mother stating she could not come just then as one of the old hens was just expected "off" with a litter of chicks Monday and she would have to defer her trip.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Q. Adams of Nebraska, are here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Dr. J. T. Wilson. Dr. Adams owns a large ranch in Nebraska and this with his large practice has made him a very busy man the past several years. In fact, his health is not as good as it was when he resided in Missouri, and we understand that it is his intention to return to this State.—Steelville Ledger.

At a called term of county court Monday morning Miss Ellen M. Kaeser, of Viburnum, in the west end of the county, was adjudged insane and ordered sent to the asylum at Farmington. Miss Kaeser is about 45 years of age and has been deaf and dumb since birth. She made her home with a sister-in-law. They have resided in Iron County something more than a year, having come from Illinois here.

The giant tractor recently bought by the special road district has arrived and has been the center of attraction for the crowds that pass by the depot. The fine piece of machinery weighs 44,000 pounds and gives the appearance of being able to move anything that is loose. It is said to be 30 horse power at the draw-bar and capable of developing 72 horse power on the belt.—Fredericktown Democrat News.

The post office at Oates was robbed on last Saturday night, the thief taking $62 in money, but did not bother the stamps or a registered letter which was said to contain $91. The post office was in Riley Black's store, and entrance was gained to the building through a back door, which was forced open. The postal authorities at Washington, D. C. were promptly notified and it is more than likely that the thief will be promptly rounded up.—Centerville Outlook.

Dr. C. H. Jones of Brunot was here the first of the week to spend a few days with his family. The Dr. is very enthusiastic over the proposition to bond Wayne county for $200,000 for road purposes which will be voted on next Saturday. It is proposed to issue 20-year bonds and those who favor the issue have prepared a statement showing that the tax necessary to be levied will not be a hardship on any one. Good roads are certainly an invaluable asset to any county.

It is a pity that drastic action was not taken against the timber thief twenty-five years or more ago. Just take a look around the valley and see to what an amazing length he has carried his depredations. Nothing has been secure from his ruthless hands. We hear of one man down the road, well off in this world's goods, who has been stealing timber from the lands of non-residents for years, but he will not let anyone touch any of the timber on his own lands. Surely not.

De Soto Republican: "A telegram was received here Wednesday by Paul P. Hinchey from Waco, Texas, to the effect that Mrs. L. Thomas had died in that city on Tuesday. She was there on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Evans. The telegram stated that the remains would be placed in a vault in Waco for the present. It is supposed they will be brought here later for burial. Judge Thomas is in Washington, D. C., and is not physically able to go to Waco for the funeral. The telegram did not state the cause of Mrs. Thomas' death."

The weather has been cool the past week but no damaging frosts.

The Board of Appeals was in session Monday. But few complaints were registered because of the recent increases in valuation.

Mr. J. B. Holloman of Hogan was in Ironton Tuesday and informed us that there would be some vigorous protests made against changing the county road between Hogan and Glover from the east to the west side of the railroad track when that matter comes before the county court next week. Mr. Holloman says that there is not enough money by any means to build the new road and that most of the people living along the route are opposed to the change.

Bonne Terre Register: "The County Board of Appeals will be in session in the County Clerk's office next Monday to make any just revisions in the increased assessments which were administered by the Board of Equalization several weeks ago. The total increase in the assessment was about $1,024,000.00, the lead companies bearing the greater portion. Unless some unforeseen reductions are made St. Francois County will have a little extra pocket change this year to make up in a small measure for the vacancy caused by the loss of saloon revenue."

State Auditor John P. Gordon writes that the failure to provide a voting precinct in Arcadia at the recent school election in Arcadia is sufficient to raise a doubt as to the legality of the proposed bond issue. Mr. Gordon, however, states that he will give no opinion until all the facts are presented to him. The school board is now busy getting out the bonds and will present them to the Auditor for registration as soon as possible. No further action will be taken in regard to a site until the legality of the election has been fully determined.

In this issue of the REGISTER will be found the announcement of Judge Add Reese as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for County Judge of the Southern District of Iron County. Mr. Reese has held this position by appointment the past few months and in that short time has well demonstrated his ability and capacity to discharge the duties of the office. He is well known as one of the best business men in the district—just the kind of a man to look after the county's financial affairs. He asks the voters to give his candidacy their careful consideration.

The Ladies' Social Club was entertained Tuesday last week in the spacious home of Mrs. L. D. Spencer. The president, Mrs. Mitchell, in the chair. After business session Easter quotations were given in response to roll call. Music and a social time followed. Mesdames Mitchell and Bishop favored the club with duets, both vocal and instrumental, which were very much enjoyed. When the dining room door was thrown open and guests invited to enter, a beautiful picture was presented—everything in Easter attire. To say the elaborate course luncheon was enjoyed but feebly expresses it. Mrs. Spencer has certainly reached perfection in culinary art and makes a charming hostess. Mesdames Woodsides and A. L. Schwab were guests of honor. Closing meeting of the season will be with Mrs. H. W. Tapley.

Circuit court convened Monday morning. Judge Deering charged the grand jury, naming Mann Ringo foreman. E. E. Whiteside, of Des Arc, in his suit against Sheriff Blue and his bondsman, filed an affidavit asking for a change of venue and the case was sent to St. Francois county. The first jury trial was that of State vs. Eli Gray of Vulture, charged with shop stealing. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The greater part of Tuesday was devoted to the trial of State vs. Wm. Yingling, charged with stealing meat from R. E. Johnston's store in Bellevue. After deliberating over the matter several hours the jury returned a verdict finding the defendant guilty of larceny and fixing his punishment at a fine of $25. Joe Jones pleaded guilty to stealing chickens in the night and was fined $25. Court will be in session throughout the week and a couple of days next week. The grand jury examined 35 witnesses Monday and Tuesday—all of them from the valley of the west end of the county. That body will probably finish its labors Thursday.

For Sale.

The Hartman Homestead in Bellevue, consisting of twenty-one acres in good state of cultivation and ten acres in timber. Fine spring. Plenty of fruit. Excellent improvements. Cheap for cash.

T. N. MARR, Agent.

School Notes.

The Senior Class gave an original program last Friday, entitled "Johann Crane's School." This was by far the most humorous program given this year.

Pupils of the first, second, third, fourth and fifth grades will give their entertainment at the Academy of Music on Wednesday, May 17.

The Eighth Grade graduation exercises and play will be given Thursday, May 18. Their play "The Little Politician" is a long and very interesting play and promises to be even better than the one given last year.

Admission to both the above mentioned exercises will be 15 and 25 cents. Senior Graduation, Free.

The Senior Graduation night will be May 19. Dr. J. A. Rice, Pastor of St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church of St. Louis, will deliver the Graduation Address. Remember, the Senior Graduation Exercises will be free to all.

Shareholders' Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that the shareholders of the Bank of Des Arc, Des Arc, Mo., will hold their annual meeting in the Bank building in Des Arc, on the 3d day of May, 1916, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of electing a board of directors for the ensuing year, and transacting such other business as may properly come before them.

NAPOLÉON A. FARR, President.

J. L. STRADER, Secretary.

Des Arc Items.

We are having spring weather at last. There has been considerable corn planted and the farmers around Charleston and Sikeston have planted lots of melons. They all use fertilizer in the hills. They get their seed from the north. They are sold to the farmers at 50 cents a pound. One pound will plant an acre. I was at Libbourn last week. Stevenson & Fitz are doing a fine business. They buy ties for B. Johnson. I was talking to Mr. Sonner, General Manager of the B. Johnson Tie Co. He has bought one thousand acres of timber, west of Glen Allen. They have over two hundred men at work making ties.

The tie business here is slackening up as farmers are busy putting in their crops.

I received an advertising sheet from Fred Gietz at Ellington. He has some fine bargains on sale. He bought out M. S. Copeland.

I was at Annapolis Saturday. I never saw so many teams in one town before. Over fifty there at noon. The merchants there are doing a fine business. Chas. Bolch has his new store about completed. Gus Funk is also building on the old Clarkson site that burned some time ago. The Handle Factory at Annapolis is full of orders. Sutton & Sutton at Vulture are doing a good business, buying ties, etc. They are up-to-date merchants carrying a good stock of goods.

While at Lutesville last week I called on old Grandma Murphy. She is 94 years old. In 1872 she and her husband and four children moved to Des Arc. She lived here about ten years. Her husband died here and she then moved to Lutesville. Since then all her children have died except one, Mrs. Franks. She lives with her.

I was at Bismarck Friday. C. Lucy has bought over 40 cars of wheat for the Jackson Mill. He is still buying and paying $1.20 a bushel. He has bought a new Dorr car. It cost him $2400.

The remains of Mrs. Ida Goaz, nee White, who died at her home in Hoxie, was brought here Monday and from here the body was taken to their old home near Saco for burial. The deceased was well known here having many friends who were much grieved to hear of her sudden death. Jas. Lewis and wife, of Pangburn, Arkansas, Mrs. Jessie Wilson, William White and other relatives accompanied the remains to their last resting place. May God bless and comfort the sorrowing mother, husband and relatives!

We received a message on last Wednesday which made our hearts sad. It contained the news of the death of one we loved so well—Grandma Weiss, who passed away at the Mayfield Baptist Sanitarium in St. Louis on Wednesday morning. She had been in poor health for some time having never recovered from the injuries received in an accident some years ago when she fell from a street car and injured her spine. She made her home here until her husband died, then went to Los Angeles, California, and lived with her sisters until about two years ago she came to St. Louis to be near her relatives there. She was loved by all and her influence is still felt here. She was a noble, christian woman, taught her Sunday School class here in the Baptist Sunday School many years, and often times I fancy I hear her sweet voice, as in the days gone by, as she sang those sweet words of her favorite song, "I must tell Jesus all of my troubles, I cannot bear my burdens alone," and as her letters came from her California home how cheerful they were and what encouragement to her loved ones who were battling along on life's rugged path. She has gone to live with her dear ones in Heaven and we expect to meet her there.

Everett Myers from Poplar Bluff spent Sunday here.

W. T. Stevenson was at Taskee last week.

E. W. Fitz, from Kennett, Arkansas, spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Taylor Collins from Piedmont, and Mrs. Ed. Collins and little son from Newport, Arkansas, were here last week to visit Mrs. H. G. Harrison.

Mrs. R. H. Stevenson and daughter Bly, went to Irondale Thursday to attend the closing exercises of the school.

Fred Gassman and family spent Easter with relatives at Middlebrook.

Mrs. Lulu Carroll and daughter, Gladys, from Shreveport, La., are visiting G. W. Wallace and family, Mrs. Carroll lived here some years ago. She was formerly Mrs. Everett Raney, her husband being a brother of our old friend, Judge John Raney of Patterson. He died some years ago. She says there are few faces here familiar to her. There are very few of us left. We are glad to see our old friends return but it is sad when they find so many changes and miss the familiar faces of long ago. It has been twenty-five years since her last visit here.

Mrs. J. W. Cooper is visiting her daughter at Horine.

C. L. Stevenson from Libbourn was here last week.

Mrs. Lee Strader and children are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. E. W. Fitz was shopping in St. Louis Wednesday.

G. H. Harrison and family spent Sunday at Piedmont.

Miss Bessie Lovelace from Doniphan spent Sunday here.

Leslie Wallace attended the field meet at Williamsville Saturday.

Herbert Stevenson has returned home from Irondale, school having closed.

Rev. K. P. Mout has resigned as pastor of the M. E. Church and has returned to his home at Amory, Miss.

Presiding Elder J. E. Martin held the regular quarterly conference here Sunday night. Rev. A. Darter from Coldwater circuit accompanied him here and preached Sunday night.

Special music was rendered and a large crowd attended the service. Rev. Martin will send a preacher here soon to take charge of the church.

The W. C. T. U. met on Monday afternoon with Mrs. R. H. Stevenson with Mrs. Bertha Stevenson leader.

Miss Olla Baker of Flat River visited in the home of her Uncle, Robert McClary, last week.

Dr. Crenshaw of Caledonia is doing dental work in our town. His office is in an upstairs room at the residence of B. W. Bynum.

Judge Wm. Townsend and R. J. McColl are attending court in Ironton this week.

Rev. Forsythe, the new Presbyterian pastor, preached two excellent sermons at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday.

T. E. Bell and family, also Miss Myrtle Van Nort, motored to Bismarck last Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. A. and Mrs. J. A. Townsend were in Ironton shopping Friday.

We recently received a letter from our Missionary friend in Africa, Mrs. Plumer Smith. She gave us a beautiful description of African scenery and told us of some of the unique customs of the natives. She says they find so much to do that time never drags with them; she also said the REGISTER comes to her regularly and was a welcome visitor.

Bellevue Valley boasts of one of its 12-year-old girls who has an unusual school record. Thelma McClary, who lives about a mile from Elm Grove School. She received her 8th grade Diploma recently, having attended school five years without missing but one day (that being the day her grandfather was buried). She is an exceptionally bright girl and we predict for her a career of usefulness.

Uncle Wm. Rayfield, of Leesterville, was the week-end guest of his niece, Mrs. Terry. Mr. Rayfield is more than eighty years old.

One of the finest surprise parties was sprung on Aunt Letty Goggin, April nineteenth, the occasion being her eighty-third birthday. Friends to the number of thirty-three visited her at the home of her son, James, each one carrying a prepared dish for dinner. With tears in her eyes, Aunt Letty greeted each one, pleased that she was remembered and thought worthy of such a pleasant surprise. The day was spent in discussing the very fine repast and in chat and laughter. The only drawback to complete enjoyment of the day was the absence of Mrs. McMahon who was visiting her daughter and unable to be present. Dear Old Aunt Letty. May she live to enjoy many more gatherings of the kind.
